

Health Economics Network for Scotland
Inaugural Event

24 February 2014 (9.30am to 1pm)
CoSLA Building, Verity House
19 Haymarket Yards, Edinburgh

Programme

9.30	Registration and coffee
	Chair:	Neil Craig, Principal Public Health Advisor, NHS Health Scotland
10.00	Update on progress in developing HENS and supporting website	Phil Mackie, ScotPHN Lead Consultant
10.10	Progress on projects testing the HENS approach: 1. Economics of Prevention 2. Programme Budgeting and Marginal Analysis in Highland	Neil Craig Marissa Collins, Researcher in Health Economics, Yunus Centre for Social Business and Health, Glasgow Caledonian University
10:30	Availability and use of health economics resources in Scotland	Maura Beaton, Public Health Advisor, NHS Health Scotland
10.45	Coffee
11.00	Understanding the demand for and supply of economics information: what do people need and who might provide it. Introduction to discussion Facilitated discussion. Attendees will take part in two discussions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The PBMA process and strategic commissioning. • Decision making using option appraisal as applied in NHS Lanarkshire • Using the clinical resource group for making investment decisions • Benchmarking hip & knee arthroplasties What implications do the issues raised in discussions have for HENS?	Presentation and facilitated discussion Neil Craig Marissa Collins Kate Bell, Senior Manager Change & Innovation, Planning and Development Department, NHS Lanarkshire Owen Moseley, Health Economist, NHS Ayrshire & Arran Alan Mordue, Consultant in Public Health Medicine, NHS Borders Panel-led discussion
12.45	Discussion on next steps	All
13.00	Close and Lunch	